

Making offers and suggestions

*I can make offers and suggestions.
I can respond to offers and suggestions.*

1 VOCABULARY

A Look at the different kinds of parties. What do you see?

B Match the words below (1-5) with the pictures (a-e) (on the PPT slides).

1. a housewarming party	2. a barbecue party	3. a class party	4. a beach party	5. a surprise party
-------------------------	---------------------	------------------	------------------	---------------------

C Look at the different party supplies (on the PPT slides). What do you see?

D Match the words below (6-12) with the pictures above (f-l)

6. drinks	7. ice	8. a cooler	9. napkins
10. paper plates and cups	11. a volleyball	12. a blanket

E Talk with your partner. What is your favorite kind of party?
What are some more things that you need if you want to have a party?

2 CONVERSATION

A Listening

1. Listen. Mike and Sarah are going to have a beach party.
What will they do to get ready?

Mike (M)	Sarah (S)

2. Listen again and fill in the missing words.

Mike: We're almost ready for the (1) _____ party. The food is cooked, but we need a few other things.

Sarah: If you can take care of some things here at home, I'll go (2) _____.

Mike: Ok. I'll fill the cooler with drinks. Should we bring a volleyball? We could play on the beach.

Sarah: Great idea. Make sure you put some water in the cooler. I'm going to the (3) _____. What do we need?

Mike: (4) _____ and beer. I think that's all. I've already packed everything else.

Sarah: I'll pick up some more ice, too. Can you think of anything else?

Mike: No, I think we're fine.

Sarah: OK. Oh, one more thing. Why don't you (5) _____ some music, too? Jazz or reggae. None of that K-pop junk.

Mike: Do I look like the kind of person that listens to K-pop?

Sarah: Who knows.

3. Practice the conversation with a partner, then change roles.

*Expansion: Replace some items with your own ideas and practice again.

B Language to learnMaking suggestions

How about...
 I think (we) should...
 Should (we)...?
 Why don't (you)...?
 Let's...

Making offers

I'll...
 Why don't I...?
 Do you want me to...?

Responding to offers and suggestions

Good idea.
 That would be fun.
 I hadn't thought of that.
 Sounds good.
 Sure. That would be great.

Sorry, I don't think that's a good idea.
 Nah. How about ... instead?

3 PRACTICEPractice 1:

A: Practice making suggestions using the Language to learn. Use different phrases.

B: Respond. Use the information below. Then change.

A

have a beach party

take a volleyball

bring a cooler

buy some ice

BB

use paper plates

take a blanket

choose some music

listen to k-pop

A

Example

A: Why don't we have a beach party?B: That would be fun.Practice 2:

A: Practice making offers using the Language to learn. Use different phrases.

B: Respond. Use the information below. Then change.

Example

A: Do you want me to buy the food?B: Sure. That would be great.

A		B		B		A
buy the food		✓		do the dishes		✓
invite someone to a party		✗		set the table		✗
bring a cooler		✓		look after the children		✓
buy some ice		✗		buy some ice and beer		✗

Practice 3: Role-play the following situation.

Student A: You and B are roommates. You want to have a party next weekend.

1. Greet B. Ask how he/ she is.
3. Say yes. Suggest having a barbecue party.
5. Agree. Offer to go to the market to buy beef.
7. Disagree. You don't like B's music. Suggest letting you choose the music.
9. Agree. Offer to buy soda and beer.
11. Agree. Say you need to go, and you will call B later.

Student B: You and A are roommates. You want to have a party next weekend.

2. Greet A. Reply. Ask if A still wants to have a party next weekend.
4. Agree. Suggest buying some food.
6. Agree. Offer to choose the music.
8. Agree. Suggest buying some drinks, too.
10. Agree. Offer to get a cooler and ice.
12. Reply. Say good-bye.

Practice 4: In groups of 3-4, make a party. Everyone must speak. As a group, decide:

What kind: place:	food and drinks:	other supplies:	activities:	cost:
----------------------	------------------	-----------------	-------------	-------

Present your party to the class. The class will vote on the best party. Groups cannot vote for their own.

4 PROGRESS CHECK

1. What do you say when you want to make a suggestion?
2. What do you say when you want to make an offer?
3. What do you say when you want to respond to offers and suggestions?

Today I can ...

- ☐ make offers and suggestions.
- ☐ respond to offers and suggestions.